Worship

St. Molua's Day

At the Open Air service to be held on Sunday 1st August at 3.30pm the preacher will be the Rev. Fr. Jimmy McPhillips, the priest in Kilanny Parish. There will be special music this year provided by John O'Brien, a top organist from Dublin.

Prayer Time

Having this quiet time to just sit and ponder and pray seems to be quite popular and we will have our July time on Sunday 11th at 9.00pm this time returning again to St. Finbarr's Church.

Harvest Thanksgiving

The dates are provisionally set for the 19th September in Ardragh and the 10th and 17th October in Magheracluone and C'macross.

United Service

On the second Sunday of August there will just one service in the Group, in St. Finbarr's at 10.30am led by Canon Johns as the Rector will be away. We hope that members of all three churches in the group will come together for this service.

Notes for the newsletter should be with the Rector by the last Sunday of the month please

Latvian Lutheran

There have been a few mix-ups about the times for this service but this month it is confirmed that it will be in St. Finbarr's on Sunday 11th July at 7.00pm led by their pastor the Rev Ugis Bruklene.

Midweek Communions

This year these services will be continuing through the summer. The only break will be on Wednesday's the 11th and 18th August when the Rector will be not be available.

Parish News

Rector Away

The Rector will be away from the 5th to the 14th August and during this time the Rev M. Pringle 086 3139152 or 047 51439 will take any calls.

Cutting Tree

The Select Vestry in C'macross has discussed making applications for permission to cut the tree near the entrance to St. Finbarr's as it is leaning dangerously and its roots are damaging the steps. There are mixed feelings about this and It was agreed that parishioners should be asked as to whether anyone would object to the tree being cut and being replaced with a smaller species.

together material to make a video about the history of CMX parish. Unfortunately the weather and other events have set us back a bit but we hope to do walks of Mullinarry and the Graveyards during July to gather more information.

Upgrading

The extra heating for St. Finbarr's is now well on its way to completion and we express our sincere thanks to the anonymous donor and the others who have provided it. We look forward to a comfortable and economically efficient heating system when the cold weather comes back.

The Vestry room is also being redecorated and we thank Mrs Irene Merrin for her generosity in provided an

People

Bereavement

Mrs Evelyn McCabe was originally from England but spent a large part of her married life in Carrickmacross where she was a lively member of the parish, singing in the choir, as a member of the bowls club and in many other ways. Poor health caused her to move to Oriel House where she was lovingly cared for for many years. She died just after her 80th birthday and was buried in God's Acre on the 17th June after a funeral service in St. Molua's. We extend our sincere sympathy to all her family.

Sympathy

We extend our sympathy to Mrs Mavis Pepper and her family on the untimely death of her son in law's sister who's funeral took place in Kingscourt on Friday 2nd July.

Reports

Barbecue

The Carrickmacross Barbecue was a great success with a beautiful evening and a very large number of people attending. We would like to thank the sub-committee who undertook to run it and made such a marvellous success of it. We also thank those who gave such generous gifts and sponsorship and all who came along on the night. It was also very successful financially making over E3500.
