Parish News

St. Finbarr's Ramp

The Select Vestry has accepted one of the four tenders for the work of building a ramp and realigning the steps at the entrance to St. Finbarr's. It will be good to get this work done after so many years of set-backs and we thank those who have seen it through planning this time round. The work may cause some access problems over the coming weeks but we hope that everyone will accept these minor inconveniences.

Parish Outing

Magheracloone are hosting an outing for the whole Group on Saturday 6th July starting about 9.30am from Kingscourt with pick-up points in Magheracloone and Carrickmacross. To cost is €25 which includes the cost of the bus and entry to the Folk Park in Omagh. Tickets are available from Gail Babington.

Barbecue

All four hundred tickets sold out quickly for this event and we are sorry to hear that so many were disappointed in not getting one. The main concern now is that we get good weather and that everyone who has offered to help will be fit to do so on the night. It is a big undertaking but the preparations by the organising sub-committee have been meticulous and we pray hard now that all will go well on the night.

G8 Prayer

There will be a Pre G8 Service on Sunday 16th June at 3.00pm in St Macartin's Cathedral (overflow to St Michael's). The service is being organised by Enough Food for Everyone IF. Enough Food for Everyone IF is a coalition of over 200 organisations across the UK and Ireland, including Christian Aid, Tearfund and Trócaire. They have come together to send a strong message to the G8 leaders as they meet at the Lough Erne resort, calling for them to take urgent action to tackle some of the root causes of hunger in our world. This service, on the eve of the G8, will be an opportunity to pray and act in solidarity with the one in eight people who go hungry every night and to add your voice to those calling for action at the G8 summit. ### SLEEP WHEN THE WIND BLOWS?

Years ago a farmer owned land along the Atlantic coast. He constantly advertised for hired hands. Most people were reluctant to work on farms along the Atlantic. They dreaded the awful storms that raged across the Atlantic, wreaking havoc on the buildings and crops.

As the farmer interviewed applicants for the job, he received a steady stream of refusals. Finally, a short, thin man, well past middle age, approached the farmer. "Are you a good farmhand?" the farmer asked him. "Well, I can sleep when the wind blows," answered the little man. Although puzzled by this answer, the farmer, desperate for help, hired him.

The little man worked well around the farm, busy from dawn to dusk, and the farmer felt satisfied with the man's work.

Then one night the wind howled loudly in from offshore. Jumping out of bed, the farmer grabbed a lantern and rushed next door to the hiredhand's sleeping quarters. He shook the little man and yelled, "Get up! A storm is coming! Tie things down before they blow away!" The little man rolled over in bed and said firmly, "No sir. I told you, I can sleep when the wind blows."

Enraged by the response, the farmer was tempted to fire him on the spot. Instead, he hurried outside to prepare for the storm. To his amazement, he discovered that all of the haystacks had been covered with tarpaulins. The cows were in the barn, the chickens were in the coops, and the doors were barred. The shutters were tightly secured. Everything was tied down. Nothing could blow away. The farmer then understood what his hired hand meant, so he returned to his bed to also sleep while the wind blew.
